shock defeat

ROTHMANS Isthmian League leaders Enfield crashed to a surprising Division One defeat on Saturday, when they went down 1-0 at home to Kingstonian.

It was Enfield's fourth defeat of the season and it came as a real shock as Kingstonian had conceded no fewer than 50 goals in the league this term. The leaders are now only four points clear of Wycombe, but they have one game in hand.

Another turn-up for the books was Sutton's 1-0 reverse at Oxford City while Clapton picked up only their fourth point of the season at home to fellow strugglers Leytonstone. They drew 1-1.

Two other basement clubs, Walthamstow and Woking, both found winning form on Saturday. Avenue beat Barking 2-0 at Green Pond Lane, while Woking ended Dagenham's fine run with a 2-1 home triumph.
